

- a room where artists, musicians, or creators work
- to recognize or find out what something is
- a strong cloth used for painting
- a goal or purpose
- to evaluate or form an opinion about something
- people skilled and trained in a particular job
- parts of a story or places where events happen
- all human beings; the human race
- firm, strong, not weak or hollow
- a person who takes part in a competition or event