Read the sentence to help you answer the following task:

1) It's my job to get the kids up in the morning.
2) Linda receives her salary on the 27th of each month.
3) He wanted to have a source of income after his retirement from his current job.
4) The company is looking for someone to fill the three empty accountant positions.

Hints:	income	salary	position	job
the title describes what you do within an organization/ company a specific work you do/ the actual tasks and responsibilities
the total money you earn related to how people earn money
a regular payment for what you do
all the money you receive from various resources

LIVEWORKSHEETS