

MATCHING EXERCISE – LAWANG SEWU (REPORT TEXT)

Match each sentence with its correct category

A. Sentences to Match

Lawang Sewu is a famous historical building in Semarang, Central Java, Indonesia. The name Lawang Sewu comes from the Javanese words lawang which means “door” and sewu which means “a thousand.”
It is one of the most well-known landmarks in Semarang and an important example of Dutch colonial architecture in Indonesia.
Lawang Sewu has a beautiful and unique design. The building combines European architectural style with local features that fit Indonesia’s tropical weather.
Inside, Lawang Sewu has long hallways, marble floors, and high ceilings that make the space feel wide and bright.
During World War II, the Japanese army used Lawang Sewu as a military office, and the basement was used for storage and protection.
Today, Lawang Sewu is managed by PT Kereta Api Indonesia as a museum. Visitors can see old photographs, maps, and train models.
In conclusion, Lawang Sewu is an important cultural and historical building in Semarang. It shows the beauty of architecture, history, and the spirit of Indonesian heritage.

B. Categories to Match With

E. Describing Historical Events (Past Function)	C. Describing Building (Design & Structure)	A. General Classification (Introducing the place)
D. Describing Building (Interior Details)	B. General Classification (Background history)
F. Describing Today’s Function of the Building	G. Conclusion	