II. Read the text about David's health journey, then answer the questions in FULL SENTENCES.

Last year, David used to feel groggy most mornings. He was overweight due to a poor diet high in carbohydrate-based snacks and sugary drinks. He barely took exercise and often felt anxious about his appearance. Eventually, he decided to change.

First, he went for a medical check-up. The doctor examined him and explained that he was at risk of developing heart disease and diabetes. She advised him to consume more fruits and vegetables and reduce his portion sizes to keep everything in balance. He also learned that moderate exercise could improve both his body and mind.

David started jogging every morning and slowly improved his fitness. After three months, he had already lost five kilograms and felt more confident. He also noticed that his immune system became stronger. He didn't fall ill even during flu season. He now says that staying healthy is not just about looking good but also about fighting off infections and depression.

Questions:

0. What problem did David have at the beginning of the story?
   → He used to feel groggy and was overweight due to a poor diet.
1. Why was David overweight?
   → _____.
2. What did the doctor tell David after his check-up?
   → _____.
3. What change did David notice about his immune system?
   → _____.

Extra question: What do you do to keep your body in good shape?
→ _____.
