

Put the verb in brackets into gerund or infinitive.

Would you like (come) _____ with me to the gym?

Most people prefer (spend) _____ their money to saving it.

It isn't good for you (eat) _____ so many sweets.

I didn't feel like (work) _____ so I phoned my boss.

Why do you keep (look) _____ at me?

Do you remember (post) _____ the letter? Are you sure you've posted?

You still have a lot (learn) _____ in English.

I'm for (do) _____ nothing till he arrives.

She didn't like (leave) _____ the children alone but she had no choice.

I'm very sorry for (be) _____ late.

He took to (get up) _____ early every day.

The washing machine began (make) _____ a terrible noise.

He decided (put) _____ his coat on the hanger.

Do you feel like (go) _____ to the cinema?

We got tired of (wait) _____ for better weather.

You don't need (ask) _____ him every time you want to go out.

It's much better (stay) _____ at home than to go out in the rain.

The police accused him of (steal) _____ the money from the house.

He expects you (go) _____ with him.

She apologized for (borrow) _____ the book without your permission.