Comparative Reading & Sentence Choice

Read and choose the best answer.

The weather has been getting warmer each month. Many people say this year feels hotter than any year before.	Tom now studies longer hours every day. Since he increased his study time, his exam scores have also improved a lot.	Today feels cooler than yesterday. Many people say the heat is not as strong as it was yesterday.
Lisa moved into a new apartment last month. Her new living room is much larger than the small one she had in her old place.	James has been practicing running every day. His speed keeps increasing, and he runs much faster than last year.	Since I started talking more often with my coworker, our teamwork has improved. We understand each other more clearly now.
I tried a new dish today, but it wasn't as tasty as the one I had last week. I still prefer the older dish.	Mark works extremely hard. His boss says Mark works much harder than I do, especially during busy seasons.	The price of this laptop has increased several times this year. People say it is now more expensive than it used to be.
My doctor told me that exercising regularly will improve my health. I've noticed I feel better on the days I exercise.	Our town is growing quickly. Every year, more buildings are constructed, and the population continues to increase.	Anna and her sister are almost the same height. Both of them are tall, and people often say they look very similar.

NAME

CLASS M.5/ NUMBER

LIVEWORKSHEETS