

Ferdinand Magellan was a _____ explorer born in _____.

He _____ that he could _____ Asia by sailing _____ across the Atlantic Ocean.

In _____, he started his famous _____ with _____ ships and about _____ men, under the flag of _____. The journey was long and dangerous. They crossed the Atlantic Ocean, then discovered a passage at the southern tip of South America — now called the Strait of Magellan.

After many months, only one ship finally reached the Philippines in 1521. There, Magellan was _____ during a _____ with local people. However, his crew continued the voyage and, in 1522, one ship, the Victoria, returned to Spain.

It was the first time in history that humans had sailed all the way _____ the _____. Magellan didn't finish the journey himself, but his expedition proved that the Earth was _____ and connected by _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS