

Comparison of adjectives

Complete the text using the correct form of the adjectives:

Here's what Chris, a fourteen-year-old film fan, says about animal movies:

"I must say that I really love animal movies, nature films and cartoons. One of ¹..... (old) animal films I know is King Kong. It was made in 1933. When people first saw it in cinemas, they were really scared, but I think today it isn't ²..... (scary) as most modern movies. It's almost ³..... (funny) to watch.

I think ⁴..... (scary) movie ever made is Jaws. I watched it with my older brother. It's ⁵..... (exciting) than any film I've ever seen and it has also got one of ⁶..... (good) soundtracks I've heard. The music is really

⁷..... (awesome). I also love animal cartoons. Shrek is a

⁸..... (good) example. It has got ⁹..... (cute) characters – I'm very fond of the Donkey, he's in ¹⁰..... (funny) scenes in the film.

My eight-year-old sister Marie is a huge fan of the movie The Lion King. I don't think it's ¹¹..... (good) as Shrek. My favourite cartoon is The Emperor's New Groove.

In this film an emperor turns into a llama* and has to get back to the throne*. The llama in the movie is ¹²..... (interesting) and ¹³..... (clever) animal of all."

VOCABULARY:

*an emperor turns into a llama – ein Kaiser verwandelt sich in ein Lama; throne – Thron