

Deep Understanding Questions
(answer in 5–7 sentences each)

- Why does Alice decide to follow the White Rabbit, even though she knows nothing about it? Explain what this shows about her personality. Give examples from the chapter.
- What does Alice's long fall down the rabbit-hole symbolize? Think about imagination, dreams, and the transition from reality into fantasy. How does the author make the fall feel strange and magical?
- Why is Alice so calm during strange moments (like shrinking)? Discuss how her reactions help create the special tone of the story. Do you think a modern child would react the same way?
- What do you think the garden represents for Alice? Use the details about the bright flowers, fountains, and her strong desire to reach it.
