"Jonatan Christie: The Defending Champion Ready to Fight"

Jonatan Christie, Indonesia's men's singles star, is preparing for the prestigious French Open 2025 tournament. Currently, he holds the status of the defending champion of that tournament after winning the title in the previous edition. In the French Open, Jonatan is seeded third.

The toughest opponent Jonatan is wary of is the world number one men's singles player from Denmark. To meet this challenge, Jonatan is conducting intensive training at the Cipayung National Training Center (Pelatnas Cipayung). His training program includes improving foot speed and mental focus. He hopes to retain the championship title, even though he knows the competition there is very tight. Jonatan emphasizes that the support from his coaches and the entire team is the key to success.
