

THE USE OF ADJECTIVES WITH -ED AND -ING

COMPLETE THE SENTENCES WITH THE CORRECT ADJECTIVE AND FORM

-ed
-ing adjectives

We feel...	the situation is...
excited	exciting
relaxed	relaxing
shocked	shocking
surprised	surprising
confused	confusing

1. The documentary was so _____ that many viewers left the theater feeling genuinely _____. (disturb, upset)
2. She found the manager's attitude surprisingly _____, which left the entire team visibly _____. (annoy, confuse)
3. Even though the book looked _____ at first, I ended up feeling deeply _____ by its final chapters. (interest, move)
4. His explanation was so _____ that the students were instantly _____ about what they had misunderstood. (clarify, intrigue)
5. We considered the proposal rather _____, but the committee remained _____ by its lack of evidence. (convince, disappoint)
6. The atmosphere at the event was unexpectedly _____, leaving several guests completely _____. (energize, overwhelm)
7. The teacher's feedback was both _____ and _____, pushing the students to rethink their entire project. (challenge, motivate)
8. She walked out of the interview feeling _____ yet strangely _____ by the unexpected questions. (exhaust, inspire)
9. The debate became increasingly _____, making the audience feel progressively more _____. (frustrate, tense)
10. Although the film was visually _____, many viewers left the cinema _____ by its abrupt ending. (impress, disappoint)

REWRITE THE SENTENCES CORRECTING THE INCORRECT -ED / -ING ADJECTIVES.

- I was completely boring during the presentation because the speaker was so bored.
- The students felt confusing after reading the article, but the topic was actually very confused.
- Her explanation was deeply shocked, and everyone looked shocking at her.
- They were embarrassing by the teacher's comment, which was extremely embarrassed.
- It was a very tired movie, so we left the cinema feeling completely tiring.

WRITE FIVE ORIGINAL SENTENCES USING -ED AND -ING ADJECTIVES CORRECTLY. MAKE SURE AT LEAST ONE SENTENCE USES TWO ADJECTIVES

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

