The World of Work

Have you ever thought about your future job? Even though you are still at school, thinking about the world of work is exciting!

Not all jobs are the same! Maybe your mum or dad does _____ (35–40 hours a week), or maybe they prefer _____, which gives them more time for hobbies.

Some people prefer to _____, like a big factory or an office. This usually means they have regular hours and holidays. Others are _____. This means they are their own boss! They often decide their own schedule and _____ that they choose themselves.

Nowadays, many people _____ or work from home. They don't have to travel to an office, which is great if you don't like getting up early!

Most people hope for _____, meaning they earn enough money to live comfortably. But not all work is paid. Have you ever helped your neighbour with their garden? That's an example of _____, but it's still very important!

Sometimes, people are _____. This just means they have finished one job and are looking for another one. It's a normal part of life! They use this time to learn new skills.

No matter what job you choose, being hard-working is essential. If you work hard and are friendly, you will always succeed!
