A Busy Weekend

Last weekend, David decided to spend time with his family. On Saturday morning, he visited the supermarket and purchased fresh fruits and vegetables. He also needed bread and milk, so he added them to his cart. After that, he returned home and organized the groceries in the kitchen.

Later, David called his sister and invited her to lunch. She happily accepted the invitation. David prepared a delicious meal and decorated the dining table with flowers. His sister arrived at noon, and they talked, laughed, and shared stories about their childhood. They even played a board game and enjoyed the afternoon together.

On Sunday, David cleaned the house and washed the car. He also visited the park and walked for an hour. He listened to music and relaxed under a big tree. Before sunset, he returned home, cooked dinner, and watched a movie. Finally, he closed the windows, locked the doors, and rested after a wonderful weekend.

Community Event at INA Regional de Heredia

Heredia, Costa Rica – Yesterday, INA Regional de Heredia organized an inspiring event to promote technical education and entrepreneurship. The institution invited students, instructors, and local entrepreneurs to participate in various activities. The event started at 9:00 a.m. and included workshops, demonstrations, and networking sessions.

Participants visited different stands and explored new training programs. They learned about innovative tools and discussed opportunities for employment. The instructors explained the benefits of technical careers and answered questions from the audience. Volunteers prepared snacks and decorated the main hall with colorful banners.

During the afternoon, the organizers presented success stories and shared experiences from graduates who recently completed their courses. Attendees enjoyed the presentations and applauded the speakers. The event also featured a small fair where local businesses offered products and promoted their services. At the end of the day, the INA team thanked everyone for their support and promised to continue creating opportunities for the community. The participants expressed their satisfaction and requested more events like this in the future.
