

1. Look at the picture and write about Tim's daily activities

One time zone is they all meet at the North and South Poles.

While half of the world is despite being much further west.

The time zone lines are called longitude lines;

15 degrees wide.

Greenland has the same time zone as the UK,

you may hear UTC (Co-ordinated Universal Time).

While the term GMT is still used,

sleeping, the other half is wide awake.

2. Read the text and statements. Write the names to the blanks.

My name's Emma. I was born in London, but now I live in Bath. I'm ten and I've played tennis since I was seven. I love sports! I haven't got a pet. Last July, I went to Colombia with my family. I met my cousins there. It was great!

I'm David and I'm ten. I was born in Bath in the house where I live now. I've got a dog, Tess. I've had Tess since I was four and I love looking after her. I play the drums. I began when I was six. I love music!

My name's Holly and I'm nine years old. I've lived in Bath all my life but in two different houses. Two years ago, I began to play the violin and a year ago I started tennis lessons. I like music and sport, but I don't like preparing for exams!

- 1 David has always lived in the same house.
- 2 _____ has played tennis for three years.
- 3 _____ has had a pet for six years.
- 4 _____ is learning to play an instrument and a sport.
- 5 _____ has been to a different country.
- 6 _____ has played tennis for a year.

3. Listen to the podcast 'Festivals in Colombia'. Choose the best title.

Carnival in Colombia

Strange Colombian customs

Colombian festivals

4. Listen to the podcast again and write True or False.

Ivan talks about the Carnival in Barranquilla.

Ivan has been to the Carnival of the Devil.

It takes place every two years.

The devils in the carnival are scary.

The Donkey Festival takes place at Easter.

It lasts for two days.

The donkeys in the festival wear costumes.

There are donkey races during the festival.

5. Look at 3 pictures. Write the story, create the solution and the final for this story.

