READING

“Cooking at Home”

Maria loves cooking. She cooks dinner for her family almost every evening because she enjoys preparing healthy meals. She usually tries new recipes on weekends, but during the week she keeps her dishes simple.

Right now, Maria is cooking vegetable soup in the kitchen. She is chopping carrots and onions while a pot of broth is boiling on the stove. Her brother Daniel often helps her, but today he is doing his homework in his room.

Maria’s mother normally sets the table before dinner, but today she is talking on the phone with a friend, so Maria is setting the table herself. Everyone in the family appreciates her cooking, and they always thank her for the delicious meals she prepares.
