

LKPD

NARRATIVE TEXT

Name: _____

Class: _____

Let's Play: Vocabulary Match

Draw lines to match each word with its correct meaning.

Word	Meaning
Lane	A human-shaped figure to frighten birds
Naughty	Twisted and turned with quick movements
Radishes	A narrow road in the countryside
Scared	A small building for garden tools
Wiggled	Behaving badly; disobedient
Toolshed	Frightened or afraid
Sneeze	Small, red root vegetables
Scarecrow	A sudden burst of air from the nose

Let's Read and Think

Read the text below.

The Tale of Peter Rabbit

Once upon a time, there were four little rabbits named Flopsy, Mopsy, Cotton-tail, and Peter. They lived with their mother under the roots of a big fir tree.

One morning, Mother Rabbit said, "My dear children, you may go into the fields or down the lane, but don't go into Mr. McGregor's garden. Your father had an accident there—Mrs. McGregor put him in a pie! Now run along and don't get into trouble." Then she took her basket and umbrella and went to the baker's to buy some bread and buns.

Flopsy, Mopsy, and Cotton-tail, who were good little bunnies, went down the lane to pick blackberries. But naughty Peter ran straight to Mr. McGregor's garden and slipped under the gate. Peter ate some lettuces, beans, and radishes. Then he felt sick and looked for parsley. Suddenly, he saw Mr. McGregor, who was planting cabbages. Mr. McGregor jumped up and shouted, "Stop, thief!" and ran after Peter.

Peter was scared and ran all over the garden. He lost his shoes and got caught in a net by the buttons of his blue jacket. Peter cried, but some sparrows told him to try harder. He wriggled out, leaving his jacket behind, and ran into the toolshed. He jumped into a watering can, which was half full of water!

Mr. McGregor looked for Peter under the flowerpots. When Peter sneezed—"Kertyschoo!"—Mr. McGregor almost caught him, but Peter jumped out of the window and escaped. Tired and wet, Peter sat down, not knowing which way to go.

He asked an old mouse for directions, but she couldn't answer because her mouth was full of peas. Peter started crying and wandered around the garden. He saw a white cat staring at goldfish and quietly went away because he had heard cats were dangerous.

Then he heard Mr. McGregor nearby and hid under the bushes. When it was quiet, he climbed on a wheelbarrow and saw the garden gate! Mr. McGregor's back was turned, so Peter ran as fast as he could, slipped under the gate, and finally reached the woods safely.

Mr. McGregor hung Peter's jacket and shoes on a scarecrow to frighten the birds.

Peter ran home and flopped down, tired and dirty. His mother wondered where his clothes were—it was the second jacket and shoes he had lost in two weeks! That evening Peter felt sick, so his mother put him to bed and gave him some camomile tea.

But Flopsy, Mopsy, and Cotton-tail had bread, milk, and blackberries for supper.

The End

Answer the following questions based on the text above.

- 1 Who is the main character in the story?

Answer: _____

- 2 Where did Mother Rabbit tell her children not to go?

Answer: _____

- 3 What happened to Peter's jacket and shoes?

Answer: _____

- 4 What is the problem in the story?

Answer: _____

- 5 How did Peter solve the problem?

Answer: _____

Let's Analyze and Write

Identify Generic Structure

Type the correct answers in the box based on "The Tale of Peter Rabbit" using complete sentences.

Orientation - Who, where, and when does the story take place?

Complication - What problem does Peter face?

Sequence of Events - What happens after the problem begins?

Resolution - How is the problem solved?

Let's Listen and Arrange

Click to listen to the audio, then drag and drop the correct word to fill in the blanks in the sentences below.

fields

naughty

lettuces

scared

jacket

toolshed

watering

gate

home

tea

- 1 The rabbits could go into the or down the lane.
- 2 Peter ran straight to Mr. McGregor's garden.
- 3 Peter ate some , beans, and radishes.
- 4 Peter was and ran all over the garden.
- 5 He got caught in a net by the buttons of his blue .
- 6 He ran into the to hide.
- 7 He jumped into a can.
- 8 Peter finally saw the garden and ran for it.
- 9 Peter ran and flopped down, tired and dirty.
- 10 His mother gave him some camomile .

Let's Put in Order

Arrange these sentences below in the order you heard them in the audio.

Peter was chased by Mr. McGregor and lost his jacket.

Peter ate vegetables in Mr. McGregor's garden.

Peter went home and his mother gave him camomile tea.

Mother Rabbit told her children not to go into the garden.

1

2

3

4

Let's Identify

Click the words identified as "verbs."

run

garden

accident

lived

naughty

ate jumped

bread

shouted

jacket

net

looked slipped

tree

found

fields

cried

water

Now, make 5 sentences using the verbs you found from the boxes.

1

2

3

4

5

Let's Write a Rabbit Mini Story

1. Choose Your Idea

Pick one simple event for your rabbit story:

- The rabbit finds something.
- The rabbit gets lost.
- The rabbit meets a friend.

2. Follow the 3-Part Story Pattern

Write 5–6 sentences using this order:

- Beginning: Who is the rabbit? Where is it?
- Problem: What goes wrong?
- Ending: How is the problem solved?

3. Write Your Mini Story

- Write your story in one short paragraph.

4. Check Your Writing

- Before submitting, check:
- Capital letters ✓
- Punctuation ✓
- Past tense ✓
- Clear beginning–problem–ending ✓

5. Share and Submit

- Read your story to your partner.
- Submit your final paragraph to the teacher.

Handwriting practice lines with decorative tree illustrations on the left and right sides.

