

Part 1. Reading: True or False

Tom's Routine

"Tom is 12 years old. He wakes up at 6:45. He puts on his uniform and walks to school. After school, he plays soccer with his friends. He reads books twice a week and he laughs a lot with his classmates. He only watches TV once a week at night."

Statements:

1. Tom wakes up at 7. T/F
 2. Tom puts on his uniform. T / F
 3. He walks to school. T / F
 4. He watches TV every day. T / F
 5. He reads books twice a week. T / F
 6. He plays soccer once a month. T / F
-

B. Fill in the blanks (simple present form)

Use: walk, read, put on, shout, laugh, drop, jump, cook

1. She _____ her jacket every morning.
 2. We _____ to school every day.
 3. He _____ his pencil in class.
 4. They _____ happily in the playground.
 5. My mom _____ dinner.
 6. The boys _____ out of the car.
 7. You _____ loudly sometimes.
 8. She _____ a book once a week.
-

C. About YOU – Short answers. Remember you need to use action verbs in your sentences.

1. What do you do every day?
→ _____
2. What do you do once a week?
→ _____
3. What do you do twice a week?
→ _____