The House of the Future... Today!

The DD Building Company is constructing houses for the future people! There are three models:

1. Green Paradise: They don't paint the house green but it will use green energy. The energy is renewable and helps protect our environment.

2. Sporting Spirit: This house is for sport players. There will be a giant 3D printer to make any sport equipment you need. Just play and rest! Because we will have robots to do the cleaning.

3. Social Mansion: This might be the best house of the three. It is a high-tech house full of smart devices and robot helpers. There will be a special automatic kitchen so you can eat whatever you want just by touching a screen.
