-FUL OR -LESS

Complete the sentence with the correct adjective.

1. Even though it was flood and raining, the volunteers were very _____ and helped the people at the shelters on the road.
2. He felt completely _____ when he realized he had lost his wallet on the crowded street.
3. This guidebook is very _____ because it explains all the important places in the city clearly.
4. The soup tasted completely _____ because the chef forgot to add any spices.
5. Be _____ when crossing the busy street so that you do not get into an accident.
6. The children were _____ while waiting for the teacher because they could not sit still and kept moving around.
7. I feel _____ whenever I play with my dog in the park because it makes me happy.
8. He was _____ and left his homework at home again, so the teacher had to remind him.
9. She is very _____ because she always helps her friends when they have problems.
10. The room looked completely _____ because it had no color, decorations, or furniture.
11. Her explanation was very _____ because every word helped me understand the topic clearly.
12. After eating only plain rice for days, the food tasted completely _____ to him.
13. He is very _____ because he always gives good advice to his friends and helps them solve problems.
14. The teacher's comments were very _____ and helped me improve my writing.
15. She was _____ when she received the gift from her best friend because it was thoughtful.
16. After losing his documents, he felt completely _____ and did not know how to fix the problem.
17. It is important to be _____ when cooking with knives so that no one gets hurt.
18. The students felt _____ during the long lecture because they could not stop moving and talking.
19. The old notebook is very _____ because it has many tips for learning English.
20. He felt _____ when his ideas were ignored and nothing he did seemed to matter.

Name..... Class..... Number.....

LIVEWORKSHEETS