

Grammar training

Reported Orders

Match the two sentences.

1. The barista asked Melissa
2. The hostess told them
3. The lifeguard told the swimmers
4. The coach told the team
5. The chef asked the interns
6. The teacher asked the students
7. The doctor told the boy
8. The manager told the staff
9. The security guard asked him
10. The builder asked the workers
11. The lawyer asked his client
12. The tourist guide told the group
13. The receptionist asked the visitors
14. The online tutor asked the student
15. The singer asked the fans

- to stay near the shallow end of the pool.
- to wash the vegetables in the large metal sink.
- to check the dessert display before ordering something for herself.
- to show his ID before entering the building.
- to follow her to the reserved table near the back.
- to gather near the bench before starting the drills.
- not to run or jump while his ankle was healing.
- to place their homework on the front table.
- not to discuss the case details with anyone outside the office.
- not to speak loudly in the waiting area of the hotel.
- not to use a dictionary during the practice test.
- not to shout during the quiet part of the song.
- to prepare the meeting room for the afternoon presentation.
- not to go too far from the bus during the break.
- not to enter the construction zone without protective helmets.