M6 "True or False? Tips for the whole Presentation process!"

Instructions:

Work in pairs. Read each tip carefully and decide:

✓ = good advice ✗ = bad advice

Later, we will check answers as a class. Who will get the top score?

Presentation Tips

1. ___ Brainstorming ideas with a partner can help you see your topic from new angles.
2. ___ You should only write good ideas down during the brainstorming stage.
3. ___ It's a good idea to write down a description of your audience's knowledge and interests and an aim before you edit your ideas down.
4. ___ Editing your ideas down by crossing off the worst ideas and circling the best content on the mind map works well.
5. ___ Make sure you keep the audience in mind when editing your ideas down, especially what they will already know about the topic, what they will want to know about the topic, and what you can realistically achieve by telling them about that topic
6. ___ Researching your topic in both English and Thai can give you a deeper understanding.
7. ___ Avoid over-researching — You might confuse your main idea.
8. ___ Organizing your ideas into 3–4 key sections keeps your speech focused.
9. ___ It's a good idea to write every word of your speech in your outline to keep your presentation sounding natural.
10. ___ Bullet points are clearer for note-taking than long sentences.
11. ___ You should write your outline in note form (avoiding full sentences, taking out all unnecessary grammar words, highlighting things you will need to look at when you say them like quotes and statistics, etc).
12. ___ You can add notes to your PowerPoint slides, and then you can print them out and practice speaking with those.
13. ___ Adding visuals should always come after you've finished your outline.
14. ___ The more animation you add to slides, the more professional it looks.

Presentation Tips

15. ___ Simple slide designs usually help your audience focus on you, whereas highly elaborate designs put the focus on your slides.
16. ___ Colorful slides automatically make your presentation more interesting.
17. ___ Practicing in front of a friend is better than only reading silently.
18. ___ You should memorize your entire speech word for word, so that you will feel more confident and know what you need to say.
19. ___ Recording yourself can help you notice weak parts in your delivery, especially if you don't someone to practice presenting to.
20. ___ Practicing too often will make your presentation sound robotic.
21. ___ Timing each part of your talk helps you stay within limits.
22. ___ It's okay to apologize if you are nervous, but you should never apologise if you make a mistake.
23. ___ Using liking phrases like "Now let's move to..." helps your audience follow.
24. ___ Moving around the stage and using hand gestures can make your talk more dynamic.
25. ___ Speaking fluently, leaving no long pauses shows confidence and energy.
26. ___ It's okay to read directly from your slides if you forget something.
27. ___ Always end with a strong message or call to action.
28. ___ You don't need to check spelling or visuals once your slides look "good enough."
29. ___ Practicing Q&A questions can help you feel more confident in the real session.
30. ___ Using advanced technical words makes your speech sound more academic, you look more professional, and your audience become more engaged.
