Interactive Worksheet: "Order of the Phoenix" (B2)

Target Level: B2 (Upper-Intermediate)

Learning Objective: Students will be able to identify and interpret symbolism, bureaucratic satire, and the anxious tone using literary analysis techniques

Task 1: Matching Terms and Definitions

Instruction : Match the literary or political term with its correct definition as it manifests in the context of the Ministry of Magic

| Terms (Терміни) | Definitions and Examples (Визначення та Приклади) |
|---|---|
| Authoritarianism | A type of rule requiring absolute obedience from subordinates, as Umbridge demands |
| Censorship | The restriction of information introduced by the Ministry to hide the truth about Voldemort |
| Hypocrisy | Pretending to be benevolent (e.g., the pink color and kittens) to conceal cruel intentions |
| Bureaucracy | A system of management where decisions are made by numerous strict rules, not logic or common sense |

Task 2: Imagery Identification (REQUIRED)

Instruction :Read the sentences. Select whether the statement is true regarding the description of Dolores Umbridge's office

1. The description of Umbridge's pink, kitten-themed office uses Visual Imagery to highlight her infantilism and false benevolence.
2. The descriptions of the "quill's scratch" and the "dull thud of doors" in the Ministry of Magic are key examples of Auditory Imagery that heighten the feeling of anxiety.

Task 3: Tone Assessment

Instruction: Choose the word from the drop-down list that best describes the author's tone during the Ministry trial scene (the Harry's hearing scene).

The tone used by J.K. Rowling in the scene where Harry is judged at the Ministry of Magic can best be described as `choose:Tense/Humorous/Carefree/Optimistic`.
