Instructions: Match the Customer Scenario on the left (1-10) to the BEST Room Type on the right (A-J).

_____ 1.A large family that needs private space with bedrooms, a living room, and a private swimming pool.

_____ 2.A guest traveling alone who prefers a room assigned to one person with one single bed.

_____ 3.A couple celebrating their honeymoon who requires a room assigned to two persons with one double bed.

_____ 4.Two business colleagues who need separate beds and are willing to share a common wall but do not need a connecting door.

_____ 5.A customer staying for three months who needs a room equipped with a kitchen, washer, and dryer for long-stay convenience.

_____ 6.A travel agent booking two rooms for two families that must be able to walk between rooms without going into the hallway.

_____ 7.A person using a wheelchair who requires a room designed for disabled guests with accessible features.

_____ 8.An important client who is holding a small meeting and needs a room with a separate living room area.

_____ 9.Two friends traveling together who need a room with two separate single beds.

_____ 10.A guest who wants a room that is located right next to the swimming pool for easy access.

a. single room

b. double room

c. twin room

d. suite

e. connecting room

f. disabled room

g. cabana room

h. villa

i. adjoining room

j. apartment