Name: Score:

6 Multiple choice questions

Term 1 of 6

What does the Civil Rights Act of 1964 do?

- It ended segregation in public places and banned employment discrimination.
- It forbids discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, or age in jobs (both hiring & promotion) and labor unions.
- It outlaws sex discrimination in Federally funded schools.
- The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) to enforce Title VII with lawsuits. For example, later court & EEOC decisions forbade sexual harassment, as well as job discrimination against homosexuals.

Term 2 of 6

What does Title II do?

- It forbids discrimination based on race, color, religion, national origin or sex in Federally funded programs. Those who discriminate lose funding.
- It outlaws sex discrimination in Federally funded schools.
- It forbids discrimination based on race, color, religion, or national origin in public accommodations (such as hotels, restaurants, etc.). Those who discriminate get sued by the Justice Dept.
- It forbids discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, or age in jobs (both hiring & promotion) and labor unions.

Term 3 of 6

What does Title IX (1972) do?

- It forbids discrimination based on race, color, religion, national origin or sex in Federally funded programs. Those who discriminate lose funding.
- It forbids discrimination based on race, color, religion, or national origin in public accommodations (such as hotels, restaurants, etc.). Those who discriminate get sued by the Justice Dept.
- It forbids discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, or age in jobs (both hiring & promotion) and labor unions.
- It outlaws sex discrimination in Federally funded schools.

Term 4 of 6

What entity was created to enforce Title VII?

- It forbids discrimination based on race, color, religion, or national origin in public accommodations (such as hotels, restaurants, etc.). Those who discriminate get sued by the Justice Dept.
- It ended segregation in public places and banned employment discrimination.
- The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) to enforce Title VII with lawsuits. For example, later court & EEOC decisions forbade sexual harassment, as well as job discrimination against homosexuals.
- It forbids discrimination based on race, color, religion, national origin or sex in Federally funded programs. Those who discriminate lose funding.

Term 5 of 6

What does Title VI do?

- It forbids discrimination based on race, color, religion, or national origin in public accommodations (such as hotels, restaurants, etc.). Those who discriminate get sued by the Justice Dept.
- It forbids discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, or age in jobs (both hiring & promotion) and labor unions.
- It forbids discrimination based on race, color, religion, national origin or sex in Federally funded programs. Those who discriminate lose funding.
- It outlaws sex discrimination in Federally funded schools.

Term 6 of 6

What does Title VII do?

- It forbids discrimination based on race, color, religion, or national origin in public accommodations (such as hotels, restaurants, etc.). Those who discriminate get sued by the Justice Dept.
- It forbids discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, or age in jobs (both hiring & promotion) and labor unions.
- It forbids discrimination based on race, color, religion, national origin or sex in Federally funded programs. Those who discriminate lose funding.
- It outlaws sex discrimination in Federally funded schools.

LIVEWORKSHEETS