

Term

18 of 33

In, Congress returned land at to the tribe

- ☐ Culture
- ☐ 1970, half
- ☐ 1970, Blue Lake, Taos Pueblo
- ☐ 1970s, Kootenai, Idaho

Term

19 of 33

AIM took a more radical, anti-federal stance than other big Indian organisation, the, which worked within the system

- ☐ Bureau of Indian Affairs, Voluntary Relocation Programme
- ☐ Bureau of Indian Affairs
- ☐ Trail of Broken Treaties, 1972
- ☐ National Congress of American Indians (NCAI)

Term

20 of 33

Act transferring acres of land & over to Native Americans

- ☐ 1971 Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, 40 million acres, $450 million
- ☐ Indian Removal Act, 1830, 1960s
- ☐ 1975 Voting Rights Act extension
- ☐ 1978 Indian Child Welfare Act

Term

21 of 33

Act passed encouraging younger people to move to towns/cities

- ☐ 1956 Indian Relocation Act
- ☐ 1972 Tribal Education Act
- ☐ 1974 Indian Financing Act
- ☐ 1975 Indian Self-Determination Act

Term

22 of 33

Nixon sympathised with Native American rights campaigners - felt it should be possible to make positive changes for Natives that wouldn't be possible for blacks

- ☐ 1 million, 23 million
- ☐ 1971, Topeka, Kansas
- ☐ termination, forced assimilation
- ☐ 4500, 1971, 1 million

Term

23 of 33

Self-determination - over the years the BIA, which controlled tribal reservations, had forcibly implemented policies to damage tribal cohesion & break up Indian culture e.g. onwards, older children placed as farm workers in &

- ☐ termination, forced assimilation
- ☐ Indian Boarding Schools, 1893, East, Mid-West
- ☐ reform BIA, renegotiate about sacred sites
- ☐ Black civil rights activists, sit-ins, demonstrations,

Term

24 of 33

Act lending tribes funding

- ☐ 1975 Indian Self-Determination Act
- ☐ 1956 Indian Relocation Act
- ☐ 1972 Tribal Education Act
- ☐ 1974 Indian Financing Act

Term

25 of 33

Tribal homelands - under the of, many Natives driven from homes: forced relocation, as govt made treaties with different tribes, many by force, to buy their land; widely agreed by that these treaties had been unfair, many N. Americans wanted new treaties & right of return where possible

- ☐ Indian Removal Act, 1830, 1960s
- ☐ 1978 Indian Child Welfare Act
- ☐ 1975 Voting Rights Act extension
- ☐ Indian New Deal

Term

26 of 33

1930s - FDR reversed trend of assimilation but wanted tribes constitutionally run, not under tribal councils

- ☐ Indian New Deal
- ☐ 1971 Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, 40 million acres, $450 million
- ☐ Indian Removal Act, 1830, 1960s
- ☐ 1975 Voting Rights Act extension

Term

27 of 33

In the, there was a dribble of land returns, often after the occupation of an area - e.g. tribe in

- ☐ 1 million, 23 million
- ☐ 1970s, Kootenai, Idaho
- ☐ 4500, 1971, 1 million
- ☐ 1971, Topeka, Kansas

Term

28 of 33

Congress passed a ruling for in - policy under which N. Americans freed from federal control, protected by US laws, but tribal lands once held in trust for them would now be open for sale; many Natives resisted this, under a later ruling it needed the tribe's consent

- ☐ 1969, 1971
- ☐ Termination, 1953
- ☐ 1968
- ☐ 1974 Indian Financing Act

Term

29 of 33

Walk from San Francisco to Washington to protest forced removals from homelands & Congress' unwillingness to negotiate new treaties (protest name/year)

- ☐ The Longest Walk, 1978
- ☐ 1971, Topeka, Kansas
- ☐ 1970s, Kootenai, Idaho
- ☐ 1 million, 23 million

Term

30 of 33

AIM protest drive to Washington - protest outside BIA, occupy building (protest name/Year)

- ☐ Trail of Broken Treaties, 1972
- ☐ National Congress of American Indians (NCAI)
- ☐ Bureau of Indian Affairs
- ☐ Respect for the tribal organisation, freedom to run own affairs, change of BIA personnel

Term

31 of 33

Alcatraz Red Power Movement takes over Alcatraz Island, occupies it until

- ☐ 1968
- ☐ Termination, 1953
- ☐ 1969, 1971
- ☐ 1956 Indian Relocation Act

Term

32 of 33

AIM protests at white Boy Scouts performing 'Indian dances' in

- ☐ 1971, Topeka, Kansas
- ☐ 1 million, 23 million
- ☐ 1970s, Kootenai, Idaho
- ☐ Young people

Term

33 of 33

AIM consciously adopted the direct actions tactics of e.g.; Also often targeted disputed land for occupations & federal government buildings

- ☐ Indian Boarding Schools, 1893, East, Mid-West
- ☐ termination, forced assimilation
- ☐ Black civil rights activists, sit-ins, demonstrations,
- ☐ reform BIA, renegotiate about sacred sites