A couple of months ago, Mark Harris traveled to Rome for a quick business visit. He chose a centrally located hotel with attentive staff and modern amenities. One afternoon, with some free time, he decided to take a taxi to the Roman Forum. The driver was a bit reserved, but the ancient ruins amazed him with their timeless beauty. Mark's stay lasted only a few days, so he didn't get a chance to explore much beyond the main sights. He's already planning to return someday to see the Colosseum and other hidden gems of the city.

6. Who traveled to Rome for a business trip?

Describe a vacation you had on a trip. Write at least eight sentences describing every single adjective.

(This area contains a large number of horizontal lines for writing.)
