"The Lost Kitten"

Mona was walking home from school when she heard a soft "meow" coming from the bushes. She stopped and looked around. A tiny gray kitten was hiding under the leaves. It looked scared and hungry.

Mona slowly reached out her hand. The kitten walked toward her and rubbed its head on her fingers. Mona smiled and picked it up gently. She decided to take it home.

When she arrived, her mother was surprised but happy to see the kitten. She helped Mona give it some milk and a warm towel. Mona named the kitten "Smokey." From that day on, Smokey followed Mona everywhere. They became best friends.
