Name: _____

Course: _____

Date:_____

Participations:_____

READING 1- page 28

Choose the best answer (A, B, C, or D).

1. What sentences is correct?
    A) The rug was expensive but beautiful.
    B) The rug was not a rug
    C) The delivery was very fast.
    D) Jensen saved money on the rug

2. In the second story, what went wrong?
    A) The cake was not delivered on time.
    B) The word NOTHING was too small and in a different color.
    C) The client wanted to write on the top of the cake, but it was already written.
    D) The cake had an awful flavor.

3. Which detail is correct about paragraph 3?
    A) The online website was not trustful but it found the present
    B) Jensen's grandparent found the exact original copy easily.
    C) Harry's grandpa was very dissapointed with his present.
    D) The book arrived in 3 weeks.

4. What common issue do the first two stories share?
    A) They were bought from the same website.
    B) The items did not match expectations.
    C) They arrived very late.
    D) They were money well spend.

5. What does is the lesson about online shopping online ?
    A) Always trust customer reviews when you buy rugs
    B) Be careful on the decription, pictures and instructions.
    C) Gifts should always be cheap and practical
    D) It's best to call the online shopping after you buy the products

6. Which sentence best summarizes the passage as a whole?
    A) Online shopping never works.
    B) You can judge items by their photos and it is probable they are good products
    C) Sometimes online purchases are unpredictable, so read well
    D) It is easy to return items online.

READING 2- page 29

Identify the true and false statements

7. The first reviewer bought a case to take photos while snorkeling. T/F
8. The first reviewer tested the case with underwater filming and later it filled with water. T/F
9. The first reviewer thinks the case was money well spent. T/F
10. The second reviewer is happy with the product because it includes different accesories. T/F
11. The second reviewer does not recommend the product to others. T/F