Vocabulary

1. Individually, without forgetting you are part of a community, complete the verses with the words in the box.

understands	running	begging	walks	trying looks	asks	chasing	ignore	suffering

Discrimination

People _____ under the rain in the street.
The homeless vagabond is anxious, as he _____ among cars _____ for a coin or a piece of bread, and people _____ him.
The angry looks at him,
The scorn of passers-by.
He _____ himself why nobody _____ his pain.
Without a job, he is now _____ from hunger and thirst,
_____ to find a way to survive, amidst the city's bitterness and the perils of old age.
He _____ around for friends or smiles _____ hope, if any.

If you want to read more discrimination poems, follow this QR/link.

bit.ly/3x6slOC

2. In classroom community, check the answers.

3. In communities, discuss the following:
   a) What is the poem about?

   _____

   b) Does it describe the present time or the past? Mention five words in the poem that help you know this.

   _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS