

Vocabulary

1. Individually, without forgetting you are part of a community, complete the verses with the words in the box.

understands    running    begging    walks    trying looks    asks    chasing    ignore    suffering

Discrimination

People _____ under the rain in the street.
The homeless vagabond is anxious, as he _____ among cars
_____ for a coin or a piece of bread, and people _____ him.
The angry looks at him,
The scorn of passers-by.
He _____ himself why nobody _____ his pain.
Without a job, he is now _____ from hunger and thirst,
_____ to find a way to survive, amidst the city's bitterness
and the perils of old age.
He _____ around for friends or smiles _____ hope, if any.

If you want to read more discrimination poems, follow this QR/link.

bit.ly/3x6sl0C

2. In classroom community, check the answers.
3. In communities, discuss the following:
- a) What is the poem about?
_____
  - b) Does it describe the present time or the past? Mention five words in the poem that help you know this.
_____