

Comparatives and Superlatives – Practice Worksheet

Exercise 1: Complete the sentences using the correct form (comparative or superlative).

Sam is _____ (tall) Sofie.
My house is _____ (big) yours.
He is _____ (big) boy in the group.
This bag is _____ (light) that one.
This is _____ (beautiful) painting in the museum.
This was _____ (bad) experience of my life.
Her room is _____ (small) mine.
This exercise is _____ (easy) the last one.
She is _____ (kind) person I know.
That is _____ (far) planet discovered.
Your car is _____ (fast) my car.
Tom is _____ (funny) person in class.
The red apple is _____ (big) the green one.
Summer is _____ (hot) spring.
My dog is _____ (fat) my cat.
July is _____ (hot) month of the year.
Peter is _____ (smart) of the class.
This is _____ (fat) cat in the shelter.
This test is _____ (difficult) the previous one.
He is _____ (strong) player on the team.
It was _____ (easy) test of the year.
The new project is _____ (expensive) the old one.
Her English is _____ (good) mine.
This result is _____ (bad) the last test.
I live _____ (far) from school of all my friends.
This is _____ (tall) building in town.
That was _____ (important) meeting of the week.
She is _____ (good) singer in the choir.

Exercise 2: Complete the sentences using “less + adjective + than” or “the least + adjective”.

This lesson is _____ (boring) the previous one.
Her room is _____ (bright) of the house.
This movie is _____ (interesting) of all.
He is _____ (creative) student in the class.
This plan is _____ (effective) the others.
That was _____ (dangerous) activity during the trip.
My house is _____ (interesting) than yours.
Your dad is _____ (authoritarian) than mine.
Your sister _____ (funny) of the house.
My dogs are _____ (noisy) of the neighborhood.
I have _____ (busy) life of my friends.