

Plant Adaptations 2: Flowers & Seeds

Choose the correct answer for each question.

Why do flowers have pretty colors and smells?

- a) To attract insects that pollinate the plant.
- b) So people can decorate weddings and parties.

Why do flowers have sweet nectar?

- a) To use its nutrients during the winter.
- b) To attract insects that pollinate the plant.

How does the "corpse" flower attract insects?

- a) By smelling sweet and nice.
- b) By smelling like a dead animal.

Choose the way each seed is being dispersed or spread.

Why do trees produce delicious fruits with seeds inside?

- a) So animals can eat them and spread the seeds somewhere else.
- b) To make beautiful necklaces.

