New Message

Hi Mum,

French camp is great. Every morning, we get up at 7.30 and then we have a traditional French breakfast. Lessons start at 9.15. Everything is in French – we don't speak any English! There aren't any textbooks, but my notebook has got lots of new vocabulary. At the camp, there are magazines in French. I can read some of them.

In the afternoons, we usually play football. There are students from all over Europe. Sometimes they try to speak English with me, but I always answer in French. On Tuesday and Thursday nights, there's a film night. We sit outside and watch a French film on a wall. In the evenings, Simon (the camp instructor) sometimes plays an instrument and we sing songs in French. We have a big dinner every evening and the food is amazing! Now I want to buy some French cookbooks.
