

Reading

Hi, I am Lily. I went to the mountain with my brother last week. His name is Tom. It was cool and windy. There were some big clouds in the sky. We climbed the mountain. The trees were tall and beautiful. We took many photos. Look, we found some small stones on the path and decorated our photo frame with them. There are four stones: grey, brown, white and black. I had a jacket and a scarf. But it was too warm, so I didn't want to wear them. We had some hot chocolate too.
