Activity 1

Read the text. Find the indefinite pronouns and put them in the table below.

A Fun Day Out

Last Saturday, Tom had a great idea. He said, "Let's go somewhere fun today!" Everyone in the group was excited, but we didn't know where to go. "Let's try the new adventure park," Greta said. So, we packed everything we needed and left.

When we arrived at the park, there was something special in the air. There were rides, games, and food stands everywhere. Tom and I tried the rollercoaster, but nobody else wanted to go on it because they were too scared. After the rides, we went to find somewhere to eat. We couldn't decide because everywhere smelled so good! Finally, we sat down to eat pizza and talked about the fun day.

People	Things	Places

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Activity 2

Complete the sentences with the words from the box.

anyone	anywhere	nothing	everything
someone	nowhere	something	everybody

1. I have _____ to do today. I'm free.
2. _____ is very excited about this film.
3. I went _____ this summer.
4. Would you like _____ to eat?
5. Did you see _____ famous at the party?
6. We need to talk. I have to tell you _____ about the last day, with all the details.
7. When we arrived at the class, _____ was waiting for us. It was our teacher.
8. Do you know _____ we can go this weekend?

Activity 3

Complete the questions with the correct indefinite pronoun. Then discuss the questions with your teacher or partner.

1. Has _____ ever surprised you with a gift?
2. Is there _____ you want to learn how to do?
3. Can you think of _____ fun to do this weekend?
4. Have you gone _____ interesting recently?
5. Does _____ in your class like the same hobbies as you?
6. Have you ever been _____ where you couldn't use your phone?

LIVEWORKSHEETS