

education – United Kingdom – 1919 – support – Viet Nam – teachers – materials – countries – skills

Save the Children is an international non-governmental organisation that helps improve children's lives.

It was set up in the (1) _____ in (2) _____, and now it is working in over 120 (3) _____ around the world.

Save the Children started its work in (4) _____ in 1990. It provides practical (5) _____ in different areas, especially in (6) _____. It has organised training courses to help (7) _____ improve their teaching and use digital technology in their classrooms. The organisation also provides books and other school (8) _____ for children in remote areas and offers life-saving (9) _____ training for both teachers and students.