

Activity: Third Conditional Practice

Instructions: Complete the following sentences using the third conditional structure. Remember, the third conditional is used for situations in the past that didn't happen and imagines different outcomes. The structure is:

If + past perfect, + would have + past participle.

1. If I _____ (study) harder last year, I _____ (pass) the exam.
 2. If they _____ (leave) earlier, they _____ (catch) the bus.
 3. If we _____ (know) about the event, we _____ (attend) it.
 4. If she _____ (not forget) her keys, she _____ (not be) locked out of the house.
 5. If you _____ (ask) me earlier, I _____ (help) you with your homework.
-
6. • If I had gone to bed earlier, I would have woken up on time.
(True/False)
 7. • If we had invited her to the party, she would come.
(True/False)
 8. • If I had known about the traffic, I would have left earlier.
(True/False)