My First Fried Rice

Last Sunday, I was home alone because my parents visited my grandmother. Around 12:00 PM, I felt very hungry, but there was no food on the table. I decided to make fried rice.

I went to the kitchen and prepared the ingredients: a plate of cold rice, two eggs, onions, garlic, salt, and soy sauce. First, I chopped the onions and garlic. Then, I heated the oil in a frying pan. I put the onions and garlic in and fried them until they smelled good. After that, I cracked the eggs and scrambled them.

Next, I added the rice and stirred it quickly. Suddenly, I remembered I had not added any seasoning yet! I quickly put in a pinch of salt and some soy sauce. Finally, I turned off the stove. When I tasted it, it was a little bit too salty, but I finished it all because I was proud of myself.
