

Lesson 3

1. Complete with “a lot of”, “many” or “much”.

1. There are strawberries.
2. There isn't honey.
3. How plums are there?
4. How orange juice is there?
5. There is milk.
6. There is lemonade.
7. There isn't mayonnaise.
8. There aren't cabbages.
9. How jars of jam are there?
10. There is chocolate.

2. Complete the dialogue between Alex and Tom.

A: Hi Tom!

T: Hi Alex!

A: How apples do you have in your lunch box?

T: I have apples! Maybe four or five.

And you? How water do you have?

A: I don't have water... just a little bottle. Do you eat snacks at school?

T: No, . I only eat one snack.

3. Complete with “should” or “shouldn't”

- When I have got cough I take some cough syrup.

- When I have got fever I go out.

- Olivia has got sore throat, she have cold drinks and she drink hot tea with honey.

- My friends have got a cold, they stay at home and drink a lot of water.

- When you have got headache, you play video games.

- Charlotte has got stomachache, she have light meals.