

KAHOOT QUIZ: QUALITATIVE CASE STUDY

1. What is a qualitative case study?

- A) Study of large populations
- B) In-depth investigation of a single case
- C) Numerical analysis
- D) Experimental comparison

2. Key feature of a qualitative case study:

- A) Random sampling
- B) Statistical testing
- C) Deep real-life contextual exploration
- D) Laboratory settings

3. A “case” can be:

- A) Only a person
- B) Only a school
- C) Any bounded system (person, event, group, place)
- D) Only an organization

4. Common data collection methods:

- A) Surveys only
- B) Experiments
- C) Interviews, observations, documents
- D) Probability sampling

5. Main purpose of a qualitative case study:

- A) Generalise to population
- B) Test hypotheses
- C) Understand unique, complex phenomena
- D) Calculate trends