

Understanding the text – Future (Going to / Will)

Read the text:

On Friday afternoon, Emma is going to travel to the beach with her parents. They planned the trip last week, and she is very excited. In the evening, she will walk along the shore and take pictures of the sunset. If the weather is cold, she will stay at the hotel and play board games instead. The next day, Emma is going to try surfing for the first time. She knows it will be challenging, but she will do her best.
