

Convert the following simple sentences into it-cleft sentences to emphasise a noun or noun phrase in the sentence (note that there will be different answers depending on which noun is cleaved):

1. John found the missing keys.
2. The cat knocked over the vase.
3. Sarah painted the entire room.
4. The teacher assigned the homework.
5. They visited the museum on Saturday.
6. Lucy baked the birthday cake.
7. The dog chased the mailman.
8. Tom won the chess tournament.
9. Maria organised the event.
10. He fixed the broken chair.
11. The children played in the park.
12. Emma read the entire book in one day.