

WILL AND GOING TO

A WEEKEND AT THE BEACH

Sophie and her family are planning a weekend trip to the beach. They are going to leave early on Saturday morning because they want to avoid traffic. Sophie is going to pack food, sunscreen, and games for the trip. The weather forecast says it will be sunny and warm, so they will probably spend most of the day swimming and relaxing on the sand. In the afternoon, Sophie is going to meet her cousin, who lives near the beach. They are going to walk along the shore and look for seashells.

On Sunday, the family will visit a small seafood restaurant before returning home. Sophie thinks the weekend will be unforgettable.
