

MAY AND MIGHT READING

Sofia is trying to plan her weekend, but she keeps changing her mind. She may visit her cousin if the weather is nice. She also might go to the movies because there's a new film she wants to see. On Sunday she may study for her English exam, but she isn't sure yet. Her friends asked her to play volleyball, so she might join them in the afternoon. Sofia likes having options, even if she doesn't know what she'll end up doing.
