Acadian History, Culture, and Cajun Influence in Louisiana

1. What influences Cajun Cuisine?
   a) Strongly influenced by Italian food traditions.
   b) Strongly influenced by German food traditions.
   c) Strongly influenced by Spanish food traditions.
   d) Strongly influenced by Acadian food traditions.

2. Reason for The Great Upheaval
   a) Most Acadians were Catholic, not Protestant.
   b) Many Acadians were scattered to various locations, including France, England, the American colonies, and the Caribbean.
   c) British feared the Acadians would side with the French during conflicts.
   d) It was the forced removal of Acadians by the British.

3. Cajun
   a) Cajun is derived from 'French.'
   b) Cajun is derived from 'Spanish.'
   c) Cajun is derived from 'Acadian.'
   d) Cajun is derived from 'British.'

4. The Acadians originally came from _____?
   a) England
   b) Spain
   c) France.
   d) Portugal

5. When did the Great Upheaval occur?
   a) It occurred in the early 1800s.
   b) It occurred in the mid-1700s.
   c) It occurred in the late 1600s.
   d) It occurred in the mid-1600s.

6. Displacement locations
   a) Most Acadians were Catholic, not Protestant.
   b) It was the forced removal of Acadians by the British.
   c) Many Acadians were scattered to various locations, including France, England, the American colonies, and the Caribbean.
   d) British feared the Acadians would side with the French during conflicts.

7. What was The Great Upheaval (Le Grand Dérangement)
   a) It was the economic prosperity brought to Acadians by the British.
   b) It was the peaceful integration of Acadians into British Society.
   c) It was the voluntary migration of Acadians to Louisiana.
   d) It was the forced removal of Acadians by the British.

8. Religion of Acadians
   a) Cajun Culture is a Direct Result of Acadian Settlement in Louisiana.
   b) Most Acadians were Baptist, not Catholic.
   c) Most Acadians were Orthodox, not Catholic.
   d) Most Acadians were Catholic, not Protestant.

9. Cajun culture
   a) Cajun culture is a direct result of Acadian settlement in Louisiana.
   b) It was the forced removal of Acadians by the British.
   c) Many Acadians were scattered to various locations, including France, England, the American colonies, and the Caribbean.
   d) Most Acadians were Catholic, not Protestant.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

10. Examples of Cajun dishes
    a) Cajun is derived from 'Acadian.'
    b) Present-day Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Prince Edward Island.
    c) Boiled crawfish, jambalaya.
    d) French, Spanish, African and Native American

11. First settled in Acadia:
    a) Present-day Maine, Vermont, and New Hampshire
    b) Present-day Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Prince Edward Island.
    c) Present-day British Columbia, Alberta, and Saskatchewan
    d) Present-day Quebec, Ontario, and Newfoundland

12. Cajun foods blends which cultures influences?
    a) French, Italian, Asian and African
    b) Spanish, German, Irish and Native American
    c) French, Spanish, African and Native American
    d) British, Italian, African and Asian

13. What was the area the Acadian's settled in valuable for?
    a) The area was valuable for its mineral resources and trade routes.
    b) The area was valuable for its strategic military location.
    c) The area was valuable for its timber and mining opportunities.
    d) The area was valuable for its fertile farmland and fishing waters.

14. What does the term "Acadiana" refer to?
    a) The term 'Acadiana' refers to the Florida region with French heritage.
    b) The term 'Acadiana' refers to the California region with Native American traditions.
    c) The term 'Acadiana' refers to the Louisiana region where Cajun traditions are most prominent.
    d) The term 'Acadiana' refers to the Texas region with Spanish influences.

15. They migrated to North America in the early _____?
    a) 1700s
    b) 1800s
    c) 1500s
    d) 1600s.

16. When did the first Acadians arrive in Louisiana?
    a) First group arrived in 1780.
    b) First group arrived in 1750.
    c) First group arrived in 1795.
    d) First group arrived in 1764.

17. Reasons for choosing Louisiana
    a) The area was valuable for its fertile farmland and fishing waters.
    b) Cajun culture is a direct result of Acadian settlement in Louisiana.
    c) It offered religious freedom and had a French speaking population.
    d) It was the forced removal of Acadians By the British.

18. What is Acadiana?
    a) Acadiana is the Spanish cultural region in Texas.
    b) Acadiana is the Cajun cultural region in Louisiana.
    c) Acadiana is the French cultural region in Quebec.
    d) Acadiana is the British cultural region in Louisiana.

LIVEWORKSHEETS