"The first telephone"

The telephone was invented by Alexander Graham Bell in 1876. He wanted to make it easier for people to talk to each other from far away.

Before telephones, people sent letters or used telegraphs. The first telephone looked very different from today's phones. They had wires and could only be used in certain places. Now, we have mobile phones that can be used anywhere.

Thanks to the invention of the telephone, communication has become faster and easier all over the world.
