

MATCH EACH IDIOM WITH ITS DEFINITION BY WRITING THE NUMBER IN THE BOX.

1	The ball is in your court		Feel extremely happy
2	Break someone's heart		Make someone feel very sad, often because of a relationship or friendship issue
3	Put your foot in your mouth		Be sad
4	Kick the bucket		Wait and be patient
5	Pull up your socks		Die, pass away
6	Give somebody a piece of your mind		Make an effort to improve your work or behaviour because it is not good enough
7	It's raining cats and dogs		Blame the wrong person or have the wrong idea about something
8	Hit the hay		Let out a secret
9	Spill the beans		It is up to you to make the next decision or step
10	Feel blue		Go to sleep
11	It is not rocket science		Start fresh with new resolutions
12	A piece of cake		Create a situation that leads to many more problems than expected
13	Wear your heart on your sleeve		Be in a difficult or uncomfortable situation
14	Be lit up like a Christmas tree		Be obsessed with an idea
15	Turn over a new leaf		It is not excessively difficult

MATCH EACH IDIOM WITH ITS DEFINITION BY WRITING THE NUMBER IN THE BOX.

16	Be on cloud nine		Have a lot of fun
17	Have a whale of a time		Excellent, the highest quality
18	A pain in the neck		Something that happens suddenly and unexpectedly
19	A wet blanket		Not able to decide between two choices
20	The bee's knees		It's raining very heavily
21	Hold your horses		Tell somebody angrily that you disapprove of something they have done
22	Open a can of worms		Really easy
23	Be in a pickle		Be open, maybe too open, about your feelings in public
24	Have a bee in your bonnet		Be overdressed, wearing many bright or sparkly items
25	When pigs fly		Accidentally say something embarrassing or inappropriate
26	Hit the nail on the head		Work too hard or stay up too late, which makes you very tired
27	Bark up the wrong tree		Something extremely unlikely or impossible to happen
28	Burn the candle at both ends		Say exactly the right thing or describe a situation perfectly
29	Out of the blue		An annoying person
30	On the fence		A negative person who tends to ruin other people's good times