2 Read the text and choose the correct options.

The house in the picture is my aunt's [1]detached / semi-detached house. It's quite old, but very beautiful. I like the brick [2]walls / roof and the green [3]lawn / steps around it. The neighbourhood is so safe and quiet that there isn't any [4]fence / drive around the house. Right behind the house there is a [5]gate / path to a river. It is such a lovely place that I go there every summer holiday. My aunt keeps complaining that the only thing missing is a [6]chimney / balcony, but do you really need one with such a big garden?

3 Read the definitions and write the correct words.

1 the area with no towns or cities, with farms and fields: c _____
2 somebody who lives near you: n _____
3 (about a house) joined with another house by one wall: s _____
4 a large building where many families live: b _____
5 (about a house) joined with other houses on both sides: t _____

4 Complete the sentences with the missing words.

1 Why don't we paint this w _____ red? It will look great with this poster on it.
2 Their new house is so far from any p _____ transport that they need to buy a car.
3 My neighbours don't take care of the grass on the l _____ at the front – it looks awful!
4 For many people a g _____ is not only a place where they keep the car, but also store lots of old things.
5 My n _____ is rather quiet, but I'd like to live closer to my school.
6 Somebody left the g _____ open and the cat has run away.
7 You'd better repair the r _____ before it rains or we will have water dripping on our heads.

5 Complete the text with the words below. There are three extra words.

garden detached floors windows terraced path balcony gate door

Catherine So, how is your new house, Jenny?
Jenny It's perfect! You know I've always wanted to have a big [1] _____ house with no neighbours.
Catherine You must finally have lots of space to keep all your books.
Jenny You bet I do!
Catherine So, how many [2] _____ do you have?
Jenny Two, there are three rooms on each. I'm telling you, the house is exactly how I imagined it – it has a wooden front [3] _____ and a huge [4] _____ with a white fence. There's even a stone [5] _____ around it. And the best thing is the wonderful view from the [6] _____ on the first floor.
Catherine Lucky you!
Jenny I know. Why don't you visit me and see it for yourself!
