

Choose the best option.

1. According to/with a recent survey, people are now more interested in sustainable travel.
2. She was angry with/to her brother for forgetting to feed her pet goldfish while she was away.
3. The new law will access to/ X emergency funds to help the region rebuild after the flood.
4. The player made sure to apologise for/ to his teammate for missing the crucial pass.
5. Many young people apply to/ for the government's new program for volunteer opportunities abroad.
6. I completely agree with/ on the critic's positive review of the new art exhibition.
7. At the information desk, a tourist stopped to ask for/ about the best local street food markets.
8. Climate change continues to affect on/ X the delicate migration patterns of Arctic animals.
9. After a long flight, we were thrilled to finally arrive in/ at the breathtaking city of Cape Town.
10. The new city policy aims to/ at reducing traffic congestion by improving public transport.
11. In answer on/ to the child's curious letter, the zookeeper sent fascinating facts about pandas.
12. The small business decided to apply to/ for a special grant to support local artists.
13. The band members had to agree on/ with a final setlist for their world tour.
14. The popular documentary had a significant effect on/ X public awareness of ocean conservation.
15. Investigative journalists fought to get access to/ X the confidential government reports.
16. The company had to apologise to/ for the significant delay in delivering the products.
17. Our train will arrive in/ at the central station just in time for the festival parade.
18. Many fans are angry about/ with the sudden cancellation of the much-anticipated music festival.
19. A shy student decided to ask about/ X a question about the author's inspiration after the reading.
20. On/ In average, a person will spend about five years of their life waiting in queues.
21. Lost in the massive library, I had to ask for/ about directions to the history section.
22. The seasoned tour guide could answer X/ on every question about the ancient ruins.