Adjective -ing vs -ed (Circle the correct answer)

1. The movie was very (boring / bored), so we left early.
2. I felt (tiring / tired) after working all day.
3. This lesson is really (interesting / interested).
4. She was (surprising / surprised) by the test results.
5. The news sounded (shocking / shocked) to everyone.
6. We were (exciting / excited) about the school trip.
7. The lecture was so (confusing / confused) that students asked many questions.
8. He looked (frightening / frightened) when he heard the noise.
9. That book is (relaxing / relaxed) to read before bed.
10. I felt (relaxing / relaxed) after the massage.
11. The game was (thrilling / thrilled) from start to finish.
12. She seemed (worrying / worried) about her exam results.
13. It was a very (satisfying / satisfied) experience.
14. The children were (amusing / amused) by the clown.
15. The instructions are (confusing / confused).
16. He became (annoying / annoyed) when people interrupted him.
17. The job is (exhausting / exhausted) but rewarding.
18. I was (disappointing / disappointed) with my test score.
19. The story sounds (terrifying / terrified).
20. She felt (embarrassing / embarrassed) when she forgot his name.